Cast Off Three Quarters

Timing

6

Starting formation

Mini-Wave, General Line

Dance action

From a Mini-Wave: a three-quarter turn around the handhold.

From a General Line: Each half of the line works together; those in a Mini-Wave do a three-quarter turn around the handhold, while those forming a couple move forward as a unit, away from the center of the line, in a three-quarter circle (270 degrees).

Ending formation

From a Mini-Wave: a Mini-Wave.
From a One-Faced Line or a Two-Faced Line: Facing Couples.
From a General Line: a General Box (with the same center).

Styling

The dancers maintain hand contact with their partner throughout the command.
